

LCWD REACTIVATION OF FLUORIDE NOTICE

The Lynnfield Center Water District has received formal approval from the Massachusetts Department of Environmental Protection to reactivate the Fluoride into the Lynnfield Center Water District's drinking water. The Fluoride has been reactivated into the drinking water as of June 1, 2018.